Business/Project Description: Beacon Enterprise Solutions Group Inc. is a unified, single-source provider of technology and telecommunications services, from software development and infrastructure design to interconnect voice/data, security and systems integration. Headquartered in Louisville, the company employs 33 in Kentucky. It also has offices in Cincinnati OH, Columbus OH, and Mangalore, India. Due to a significantly expanded contract with one of the world's largest pharmaceutical and consumer health products companies and new business opportunities developing in European markets, Beacon is looking to relocate to a larger Louisville facility. The move would be an investment of $504,000 and create 36 new jobs and new annual payroll of $2 million.
